About the course

The Calligraphy Training Course is suitable for those who want to explore the ancient form of art by writing beautiful characters and creating your own work to take home. Since the Han Dynasty, calligraphy was considered not just a form of decorative art in China, but also was more valued than paintings and sculptures. Calligraphy ranked alongside poetry as a means of self-expression and cultivation.

This training course is once a week. Each workshop is 2 hours for a total of 32 hours. You can choose to enrol IN either a weekday group or a weekend group. The teacher will explore different forms of characters in history and show you how to use ink and the brush and so on. After completing each session you will be able to bring home your own work..

About the teacher

"Hello everyone! My name is Alan. I have been fond of calligraphy since I was a child and always ranked first in school. Since high school, I have won prizes in calligraphy competitions. Last year I took the exam and got the National Advanced Certificate of Calligraphy. I have been invited to write by well-known foreign companies and TV stations. Calligraphy is the main representative of Chinese traditional culture. Learning calligraphy is good for body and mind. Let's learn calligraphy together!"
